beach patrols

Main and Cylinder beaches are patrolled by lifeguards from 8.30am - 5.00pm daily.

fishing report

Tailor are thickest at the moment with good catches reported everywhere. Dart, flathead and bream dominate the gutters and drains on all beaches. Hard not to get a feed at the moment. Happy fishing.

- Dave, Straddie Eco Tours

chamber music festival

The annual Stradbroke Chamber Music Festival is on this weekend with 6 different concerts across various locations on the island. The festival provides an eclectic mix of music, including quartets with a gypsy touch, cabaret and a new instrumental piece composed specifically for this year's festival. Cash ticket sales are available at the Point Lookout Newsagency and at the door.

great south east

Tune into Channel 7 this Sunday at 5.30pm to see our Once Around the Block segment on the Great South East. This week is all about the township of Dunwich. For more information visit www.stradbrokeholidays.com.au or phone 3821 0266.

Fridays at the Stradbroke Island Beach Hotel

Buy a Jag the Joker or meat tray raffle ticket to win! Raffles drawn between 6 and 6.30pm. TGIF free snack platters from 5pm. New bistro and beer garden menu available.

Sundown Sunday Sessions, Little Ship Club

Head to the Little Ship Club, Dunwich on Sunday afternoon for live music from Adam Dunn and a Tapas dinner.
